Antique Reclaimed HEART PINE (SELECT)

A testament to the enduring legacy of America's Industrial Revolution, our hardwearing Antique Heart Pine hardwood flooring has been reclaimed from the factories and mills that powered our nation's manufacturing base. Its use in vital support beams confirms its strength and durability.

In your home, Antique Heart Pine's superbly tight grain and lavish, tawny shade will lend its charming allure to virtually any style, transforming the room it graces into a warm, welcoming haven.

Distinctive Attributes

Recognized for its intense yellow-orange color and a grain so tight it often possesses more than seven growth rings per inch. Features sound knots, cracks, and nail holes. Select Grade will be more uniform in appearance, while Common Grade contains a heavier mix of knots and natural character markings.
